1. Mr. Proctor stated that we had received several requests for a review of Sam Adams' book. He added that Mr. Walsh was writing a memo on Sam Adams and the whole estimates question.

2. Mr. Proctor reported on the breakfast/briefing held on 1 May for members of the Senate Select Committee and some of its staffers. He noted that it was not a hostile audience and that he and Senator Tower agreed that the session was a net plus for the Agency. The members seemed to have left with a significantly greater appreciation of 1) the benefits from, and sensitivity of, our liaison relationships; 2) the usefulness of intelligence; and 3) the complexity of the problems involved.

3. Mr. Proctor referred to the package of classified materials that Congressman McCloskey was holding for Sam Adams and had sent over for an Agency declassification review. Mr. Proctor asked [] to check with [] on the status of the review.
